TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have known Dominic Alafaci of Collins House in his capacity as an Investment Advisor and Company Director since 1997.

He has provided me investment and strategic financial advice, which has proven beneficial, and for which I am grateful.

In my experience, he is a man of integrity, vigour, professionalism and commitment to the interests of his clients.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Zelman Cowen', written in black ink.
